

hereas in the present treaty concerning the settling and establishing of a firme & perfect peace within this Kingdome, (which treaty stands already adjourned to the 10. day of this January) severall matters of eight and consequence have been treated and debaled, which doe necessarily require to be yet further prepared for the satisfaction of all parties, and consequently an adiournment to a further time, beyond the d tenth day of this January, is become necessary.

We the Lord Lieutenant his Majesties Cōmissioner & in the behalf of his Maiestie on the one part, and Donogh Lord vīsc. Muskery, Alexander mac Donell Nicholas Plunket Esquires. Sir Robert Talbot Baronet, Dermot ò Bryen, Patricke Darcy, Geffrey Brown, and John Dillon Esquires . for and in the behalf of his Ma-ies Roman Catholique Subjects of the other part.
We thought fit to adjourn, and doe hereby adjourne the treaty of peace till the tenth day of February next, for better preparation of sundry matters concerning said treaty, and conduced to a Peace. It is agreed that the said Donogh Lord vīsc. Muskery, Alexander mac Donell, Nicholas Plunket, Sir Robert Talbot, Dermot ò Bryen, Patrick Darcy, Geffrey Brown, and John Dillon, any one or more of them may repaire to Dublin, as and remaine there as long in the meane time as they shall thinke fit, or continue intercourse to that use by letters or messages as they shall finde necessary. Dated the 8. day of January, 1644.

Ormonde.

